Amazing Spaces Expands Staff, Franchise Agreements

01/07/2009

Amazing Spaces Storage Centers kicked off 2009 with several newly developed positions. Mike Gately was named as director of operations, charged with overseeing all property-management activity. He was formerly vice president of property management at Hendry Investments.

The company has also named Nathan Curtess as head of franchise sales and development. He has been with the company for five years, most recently as a property manager.

Doug Gardown, who served as Amazing Spaces' area manager for the past nine years, moves into the position of director of IT operations. Jennifer Byrne has been named executive office administrator.

Houston-based Amazing Spaces, founded by Scott and Kathy Tautenhan, announced it is adding two new properties to its management portfolio as well as expanding its franchising companies throughout the coming year. The company offers solutions for self-storage, RV and boat storage, wine storage and franchise opportunities. Info: www.amazingspaces.net
